

KID NORMAL

AND THE FINAL FIVE

Discussion Questions

1. Have you read any books from Greg James and Chris Smith's Kid Normal series before? Which is your favourite so far and why?
2. What does the word 'normal' mean? Why can it sometimes be difficult to be different? Why is it awesome to be different too?
3. Why is Murph called 'Kid Normal'? What makes him different at his school? What makes you different to other kids at your school?
4. Which is your favourite superpower in the book and why? If you could have an unusual superpower what would you choose and why?
5. Why must Murph and the other Heroes defeat the villain Nicholas Knox? What is Knox trying to do and why?
6. How does Knox use the media to spread fear about the Heroes? Why should we be careful about believing everything we see or read in the media?
7. How do each of Murph's friends help him on his adventure? What makes them brilliant friends to have?
8. What did you learn about heroes from the story? What qualities make you a hero? How can we think about these qualities as superpowers?
9. Who is your best friend? What makes them different and awesome? What superpowers do they have?
10. What makes you a hero? What superpowers do you have? How can you use them to do good?

